Comité de "Douzelage" de la Commune de Niederanven

Niederanven Douzelage activities since the Altea meeting in May 2009

As it had been announced at the meeting after the meeting in Altea, the committee of Niederanven had been very busy in producing the video of the Altea meeting. They proceeded in drafting the text, recording the sound and supervising the production of the video, elaborated by the cameraman who had been in Altea for the recording. A copy was provided to the agency in Brussels, in charge of the evaluation of the applications for the Golden Stars of Twinning contest in order to complete the dossier submitted by Altea. Every Douzelage town will be get a copy of this video in Sušice.

- 8-11.08.2009      Members of the Tourist Office and of the Douzelage Committee from Niederanven visited Bad Kötzing for the second time already and attended the Theatre play "The Beggar's Opera" written in 1728 by John Gay. This Forest Festival is the flagship of the Eastern Bavarian folk theater. Classics of literature are written into Bavarian dialect, and thus brought to a wide audience.
- 16.09.2009      The association "Natur a Reesfrënn" [Travel and nature friends] from Niederanven visited Judenburg. Mrs Andrea Kober had arranged a guided tour with Willy Schnedl in the beautiful historic town of Judenburg. The group of ± 50 people was invited to the town hall, where a glass of friendship was offered. The visitors from Niederanven were absolutely delighted of the warm welcome they got in Judenburg.
- NOV 2009      The Mayor of Niederanven informs the member towns of the Douzelage about the unanimous decision taken in the local Douzelage committee together with the Mayor and vice-mayors, stating that the chairman of Niederanven and the actual Douzelage president will not be a candidate for the Sušice elections in 2010.
- 21-24.01.2010    Stuart Atkinson from Niederanven attends the preparatory meeting in Sherborne involving Zvolen (Slovakia), Prienai (Lithuania), Niederanven and Skofja Loka (Slovenia) in a Comenius project on language learning and environment
- 05.05.2010      The seniority association Club 50+ will visit Granville. They will be welcomed in the town hall and André Gendre will make a guided tour of Granville and show them the many beautiful sights of his home town.
- 22-24.05.2010    The "Harmonie du Cap Lihou" from Granville will visit Luxembourg and give a Concert in the Cultural Centre "Centre de Loisirs" in Niederanven on Whitsunday, together with the local brass band Fanfare "La Réunion" from Hostert.
- 13.06.2010      The male choir from Meerssen will visit Niederanven and give a Concert-Apéro in the Cultural Centre "Centre de Loisirs" in Niederanven
